LAKE OF THE PINES

NEXT MEETING
MARCH 6, 2013

BIG SIR - PAUL LAMBERT

We had 50 Branch 170 LOP SIRS attend our February 6th meeting on a beautiful winter day with great views of our Lake from the Sports Lounge. Little Sir Glenn Delisle had Michael Beaman as our speaker. Michael is a Certified Medicaid Planner and walked us through the planning steps to fund Long Term Care. It was sobering and important information.

The BEC meeting included Little Sir Glenn's resignation as a director (you cannot be an officer and director at the same time). Vern Bagby was elected by the BEC to fill Glenn's term. Vern, many thanks for stepping up to the plate.

See you at our March 6th meeting where Glenn will have a very special speaker and we'll enjoy a St. Patrick's Day feast. Mark your calendars for the SIRS day at the San Francisco Giants August 8th 1PM versus the Milwaukee Brewers.

And remember – they don't call this the BS report for nothing!

LITTLE SIR - GLENN DELISLE

Our speaker for February, Mike Beaman, explained ins and outs of long term care for older folks. Some great information. Our speaker for March 6 will be Bud Anderson. Bud is 90 + years, a retired Air Force Lt. Col. from Auburn. Bud flew P 51 fighter planes in WWII, and was an ACE. He will describe some of his "life threatening adventures" and will show a 10 minute Dog Fight video and explain how those contacts evolved. Men like Bud are always amazing and create a sense of awe over their life style and escape from WWII alive! If anyone has suggestions on a speaker, call me and I'll follow up and do the rest. Don't forget, at each luncheon we draw a name for a free lunch the following month, plus from those celebrating a birthday we draw a name for a free lunch next month. Don't let anyone tell you life has no free lunch! Come to our SIR luncheon -- bring a friend -- and you stand a chance for free food.

Feb guest speaker
Michael Beaman
