BIG SIR - RON WOLYN

It's been a Great Summer already...The SIR State Conference was recently held in Sacramento and our Branch #170 received the "President's Certificate of Success"...Congrats to all members, thanks for being a healthy and active group!

We had two outstanding golf outings. Our July Tournament was attended by eight of our players and we had five winners, including the Trophy for the Lowest Net Score, by Allen Bolen. Our August Tournament was not as successful, but we still had some cash prize winners!

Our August Luncheon meeting was attended by 90 members. We have seven new members who were greeted at this meeting.

Another excellent speaker from NID, who discussed our water shed and capacity, as well as the projections for future years and newly revised plans for storage.

Our Bocce Ball teams continue to improve, thanks to the efforts of Bocce Captain/Chair Dan Barbee.

We have enjoyed Wine Tastings along with Dinning Out gatherings, thanks to Terry Ebberhardt...and Beer Tasting Adventures, thanks to Ray Tschirhart.

Looking forward to many activities and Summer Adventures.

I am enjoying being your BIG SIR, Ron Wolyn

LITTLE SIR - JIM GOETSCH

On Wednesday, August 3rd, we had a presentation by Rem Scherzinger of NID regarding the Centennial Dam - the need for it, the location, and the plans to date. The presentation was informative for most of the members, and very well received.

For our September meeting, I have invited a speaker, who has yet to confirm his availability. If he is unable to make it, the group will be forced (treated?) to hear about my two-year sailing trip to Mexico - an update of the one I gave a couple of years ago. I believe we have enough new members that it will be fresh to many, and I will alter it to emphasize some different aspects of the trip.

We have placed a second order for the SIR-embroidered golf shirts, which should be available for our next meeting. We are ordering shirts only after receiving payment for them; so get your money in to Pat Graham or me, if you want to be part of the third order. The cost is $26 apiece unless you also want your name on the shirt for an extra $10.

If I can be of any service to you, please contact me at

BOCCE BALL

At the SIRS Regional BocceBall Tournament there was a 3 team tie for 1st place so they went to a tiebreaker using point differential accumulated through the days matches. The team with Don Clausnitzer, Andy Ameigeiras, Phil Jones, and Dan Barbee took 1st. The team with Ron Wolyn, Jim Gunn, Bob Cunningham, and George Siffri came out in 3rd. It is still to be determined which teams will go to the state tournament.
